Square Dancing is GREAT fun and there are MANY healthy reasons to square dance.

With all its moving, twisting, and turning, square dancing provides more than the daily dose of heart- and bone-healthy physical activity. Remembering all the calls – from “do-sa-do” to “allemande left” – keeps the mind sharp, experts say. And the companionship that regular square dancing offers is an antidote to depression and loneliness, a statement confirmed by square dancing advocates everywhere.

If you ask your doctor, he or she will say Square Dancing burns about 300 calories an hour and is a good form of mild exercise for the body, and the mind.
