

Confidence Building Dance/Workshop & Sneak Peek at our New Location

Do you have members who may not feel confident to come to dances?

The Square Crows invite your members to dust off their dancing shoes and head to the Maltby Community Club on Friday August 10th for a confidence building dance/workshop. This will be a great opportunity to practice no matter how rusty your dancer might feel.

Experienced dancers are welcome too if your desire is to help everyone have a good time!

This will also be a sneak peek at our new hall at 8711 206th St SE (Snohomish 98296).

Cost will be only $5.00 for each non-Square Crow dancer. Spyder Webb will be calling mainstream dancing from 8:00PM to 10:00PM.

Directions:

The Club is located north of Woodinville and east of Bothell, just off Maltby Rd (State Route 524) between SR 9 and SR 522.

From eastbound SR 524, turn left onto 86th Ave SE then right onto 206th St SE. The Club is at the corner of 87th and 206th.
