A CHAT WITH OUR CORNER – LISA HUTCHINSON

Lives in: Monroe

Grew up in: Pasadena, California

Family: Two brothers, Jamie in Ashland, Oregon and Hutch in Maryland

Best thing I ate this week: Salmon

Stuff I can't live without: My Animals

If there were an extra hour today I would: Play cribbage with Doug

My first car was: 65 Volkswagen convertible

I wish I could tell my younger self to:

Get a job with the state

Favorite family recipe: My mom's blueberry muffins - there were so many blueberries the dough barely held them together

I'll do anything to avoid: Cleaning the house

Favorite junk food: Ice cream

Best book I've read lately: Winter of the World by Ken Follett

Worst habit: Being too hard on myself and putting off cleaning the bathroom

I'd watch these movies more than once: Overboard and any comedy with Jim Carrey

Makes me mad: People who have a lack of empathy for others

If they came to my town, concerts I wouldn't miss: Andrea Bocelli and the Rolling Stones

I love my pets: 2 cats, Sonsie and Lena; 5 chickens, Whiskers, Brownie, Dominique, Cucko and Gertie; 3 goats, Willie, Moppet and Boston; 2 sheep, Hamish and McDuff; and 1 llama, Pesco

Best fast food joint: Bella Balducci's in Monroe

Good intentions I never get around to: Organizing photos

Best vacation, bar none: Panama with Doug

Still at the top of my bucket list: Visiting Australia and New Zealand

I like to have dinner out at: Anywhere with Doug

Chores I actually like: Anything at the barn or in the garden

My favorite time of year is: Spring

Shows on T.V. that I don't miss: Saturday Night Live, Anything on PBS

Favorite singers: Andrea Bocelli, Neil Diamond, The Beatles, Abba

Hobbies: Hiking, gardening and animals

Best job ever: Education Director at the Museum of Science and Industry in California. Got to meet Jacques Cousteau and Carl Sagen.

You might be surprised that I: Lived in New Mexico for 10 years

Best dessert: Baklava and chocolate sundae

Songs that never get old: The Graceland album by Paul Simon

Fondest childhood memory: Going to the beach in Carpentaria for 2 weeks every summer

My favorite in the box of chocolates: The nuts and caramels

Any regrets? I don't have any because I think everything is a lesson in learning

Best place for a weekend getaway: The ocean

My favorite square dance callers are: I like them all
